BETTLING DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

THE CONFERREES WILL HOLD A SUNDAY SESSION FOR THE PURPOSE OF EXPEDITING THEIR WORK-GOOD PROGRESS STILL

BEING MADE

Washington, July 10.-The conferrees on th Tariff bili suspended their labors long enough to-day to attend the funeral ceremonies over the body of the late Senator Harris, but resolved, before dispersing for this purpose, to reassemble immediately after the close of the services, and to continue their work not only to-night but all day to-morrow. The decision to sit on Sunday was not reached without some hesitation, but was decided upon as necessary to expedite the reporting of the bill. The conferrees are still hopeful of being able to conclude their labors by the middle of next week.

While the greater portion of the time so far has been given to Senate amendments over which there is comparatively little dispute, there has been more or less discussion of some of the more difficult problems, and one of these is the form of the reciprocity provision of the bill. The advice of the President has been sought on this question, and it is understood that he has expressed himself as favoring a policy allowing considerable latitude and based upon liberal

The Senate representatives accept this intimation as favorable to their substitute for the House provision, as the House paragraph is restricted to certain articles, while theirs is made capable of covering the entire field of foreign commerce, allowing a discount of 26 per cent, permitting an increase of the free list, and delegating authority to assure foreign countries that any article covered will be retained on the free list for five years. The House mem-bers have not, however, signified their accept-nce of this view. Of the Senate amendments passed upon the House representatives have conceded about three-fourths. This course they find necessary because the bill was considered with so much more deliberation by the Senate than by the House. They say the House itself would have made many amendments if more time had been given.

The conferrees expressed confidence to-day in The conferrees expressed connected to-day in being able to call in the Democratic members by Tuesday. They said that they were succeeding better than they had hoped to do in settling their differences. The Democratic members of the conference say that whether they will demand much time in committee when called in will depend on what the Republicans do with the amendments made in the Senate on the suggestion of Democrats. If they find these to have been abandoned they will ask for explanations.

RUSHING IN LUMBER AT OSWEGO.

Oswego, July 10 .- In anticipation of the duty on lumber proposed by the Dingley bill, lumber is being rushed in here liveller than at any period in ten years. Since the opening of navigation 38,012,192 feet of lumber, in addition to 10,000,000 feet of do-mestic lumber, have been brought here; also 8,000,-600 lath, 550 cords railroad ties and 852 cords cedar posts. Great quantities are also being brought

CONDITION OF CROPS.

JULY RETURNS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRI-

Washington, July 10.-The July returns to the Statistician of the Department of Agriculture indicate the following average conditions: Corn, 82.9; 81.2; spring wheat, 91.2; combined spring and winter wheat, $4.9; oats, $7.5; winter rye, 95; spring rye, 90; barley, 88.5; tobacco, 78.5; Irish The report on the acreage of corn, which is preliminary, shows a decrease of 1.2 per cent as com-pared with that of last year. This represents a decrease of about a million acres. Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Texas and one or two less important corn-producing States show an increased creage, but this is more than offset by the shrink age in Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and other States. The average condition of corn is only $2.9, or 9.5 points lower than in July of last year. The principal State averages are as follows: Ohio, 76; Michigan, 80; Indiana, 83; Illinois, 82; Iowa, 75; Missouri, 92; Kansas, 99; Nebraska, 82; Texas, 101: Tennessee, 90: Kentucky, 87.

The condition of winter wheat, 81.2, is 2.7 points higher than last month and 5.6 points higher than in July of last year; that of spring wheat, 91.2, is class higher than last month, but 2.1 points lower than in July of last year. The average con-1.5 points higher than that of the corresponding last year. The percentage of the wheat crop of 1896 reported as on hand on July 1, 1897, is The average condition of the oat crop, $7.5, compares very unfavorably with that of July, 1896, but is only a small fraction of 1 per cent less than the average July condition for the last ten years. The average condition of rye. 36, is 11.2 points higher than in July of last year, but that of spring rye. 30, is 36 points lower than it was at that time. The condition of barley is improving, having advanced 11 points during the month, and is now slightly better than at this time last year. The to-bacco acreage shows a falling off of over 20 per cent, as compared with last year and the condition, 78.5, is less by 13 points than that of July last.

There is a decrease in the acreage of Irish potatoes of 8.4, as compared with that of last year. The shrinkage is general, Nebraska being the only State with any considerable acreage devoted to this crop that shows an increase. In point of condition, also, the crop at this time compares unfavorably with that of last year, the figures being 87.8 and 39, respectively.

The wool report indicates 5.8 pounds as the average weight a fleece, as compared with 5.7 last year, and 5.6 in 1896. The European agent of the Department reports that the weather during June was generally favorable to growing crops, except in Russia and baries of Germany and Italy, but the wheat crop will be below the average in Great britain, France and Austra Hungary. A consular report from Winnipeg, Manitoba, indicates good crop of wheat, oats and bariey on an increased acreage in that province.

BOOTH-TUCKER'S COLONIZATION SCHEME.

HE SECURES A PROMISE OF ASSISTANCE FROM SECRETARY WILSON.

Washington, July 10.-General Booth-Tucker American commander of the Salvation Army, called on Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture to-day to seek the Secretary's advice regarding schemes for colonizing in the country the poor of the great cities. The conference was an in-teresting one, and Secretary Wilson offered every ald that the Department could give to promote the plan for getting the people out in the country. pian for getting the people out in the country. He suggested to General Booth-Tucker that he knew of no better place for such colonies than the neighborhood of the District of Columbia. He pointed out the advantage to be derived from the proximity of such a location to the desirable market to be found in this city for the products of small farms, and also called to his attention the cheap price at which land within twenty-five miles of Washington can be secured.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR HARRIS.

SERVICES IN THE SENATE CHAMBER ATTENDED BY THE PRESIDENT, THE CABINET, CON-GRESSMEN AND DIPLOMATS.

Washington, July 10.-Impressive funeral services over the late Senator Isham G. Harris took place in the Senate Chamber at noon to-day, in the presence of President McKinley and the m bers of his Cabinet, Senators and members of the House of Representatives, members of the Diplomatic Corps, Justices of the Supreme Court and officials from all branches of public life. The chamber had been elaborately draped for the oc casion. From the wall back of the Vice-President hung garlands of bay leaves, and all about the chamber were tall palms and potted plants. The desk of the late Senator was heavily bound in crape, with a crape scarf thrown over the vacant seat. In the semi-circular area immediately in front of the presiding officer stood the coffin, resting on heavy black draped pedestals, and literally buried in floral offerings. The coffin was covered with black broadcloth, with heavy oxidized silver trimmings, and on the plate was in-

At the head of the coffin, and reposing in on the desk of the Senate officers, was the floral tribute of the Senators. It was a wreath, out of which three white doves with outstretched wings ascended. Near this was an exquisite cross and crown, while on and about the coffin were large floral wreaths with heavy purple streamers. The coffin had been brought from the Marble Room at 11 o'clock, a squad of six policemen acting as bearers. At 12 o'clock the Rev. Hugh Johnson acting chaplain of the Senate, delivered the prayer, which referred to the long and valuable services of Senator Harris to his State and the Nation, his Senator Harris to his State and the Nation, his sturdiness of purpose and unfailing rectitude. The Vice-President announced that the usual business of the day would be suspended for the purpose of doing honor to the memory of the dead Senator. Following the prayer, the Senate officials announced the arrival of the various officials. First came the Senators, Following them were the members of the House of Representatives. In from of them sat representatives of the Diplomatic Corps, including the Chinese Minister and his suite in their picturesque garb; the Corean Minister and his secretary, and Ministers Hatch, of Hawaii; Romero, of Mexico, and Andrade, of Venezuela, accompanied by Chief Clerk Michaels, of the State Department.

The President and his Cabinet were announced at 12:15 o'clock. President McKinley came first, accompanied by Secretary Sherman, with Secretaries Gage, Alger and Wilson, Attorney-General McKenna and Secretary Porter following. They were seated in the front semi-circle to the right, the President on the aisle and before the flower-covered coffin. Across the aisle were the escort of Senators, each wearing a broad white slik badge of mourning from shoulder to hip. White these officials were assembling on the floor of the chamber, the galleries were filled to their full capacity, many women, including a number of wives of Senators, being present.

The services were brief and simple, consisting sturdiness of purpose and unfailing rectitude.

were assembling a number of wives of Senators, being present.

The services were brief and simple, consisting only of prayers by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, the Rev. Dr. Duffy, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and Chaplain Couden, of the House of Representatives, the latter pronouncing the benediction. At the conclusion of the prayers the Vice-President arose and said: "The funeral service is closed, and the body of our late brother will now be committed to the charge of the officers of the Senate and to the committees of the two houses, to be conveyed to his native State, there to be buried amid his family and friends." At 12:30 o'clock p. m. the ceremony was over, and on motion of Senator Bate, of Tennessee, the Senate adjourned.

Without formality President McKinley and the other officials retired from the chamber. The coffin remained in the chamber with an honorary guard about it, the dbors to the floor and gaileries being closed after 1 o'clock. At 9 o'clock to-night it was taken to the funeral train, which started for Memphis.

M'MILLIN NOT TO BE APPOINTED. Nashville, Tenn., July 10.-There is no truth in the report that Governor Taylor has decided to appoint Representative McMillin Senator to suc-ceed Mr. Harris.

Washington, July 10.-Owing to the fact that there are two United States consuls in the Argen tine Republic named Baker, some confusion arose as to the identity of the American consul there whose death was reported to the State Department yesterday. It was the consul to Buenos Ayres, Edward L. Baker, and not his son, who is consul to Rosario, of whose death notice was received.

The third day's dredging operations to recov possible Guldensuppe's head, which is supposed to be in the East River, began at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when the police launches left Pier A. Two sets of dredgers continued at work on the line of the course of the ferryboats from Long Island City, off Thirty-fourth and Ninety-second sts., and Captain Schultz, on the police tug Patrol, gravitated between the two fields of labor.

Assistant District-Attorney Mitchell said yesterday that there were no developments in the people's case, and that all the witnesses would appear in court to-morrow, so that the counsel for the defendants would not be able to offer excuse for another adjournment.

Acting Inspector O'Brien also said that he had nothing new to give out. The police are trying hard to recover Guldensuppe's watch and chain, which were pawned, it is alleged, by Thorn. The police are also trying hard to trace Thorn's movements before and after Guldensuppe's murder.

COMFORT AND PLEASURE AT MANHATTAN Cool breezes, sounding waves, sweet music, pretty girls, good hotel service, fine bathing facilities, and last but by no means least, a gorgeous display of fireworks, are some of the attractions which have served to draw crowds away from the sweltering city this last week. They are to be had in the fullest measure at Manhattan Beach, and the time table is so arranged that an afternoon and evening can be spent profitably and without any waste of the moments devoted to enjoyment. Sousa is doing the business of his life. Pain, if present condoing the business of his life. Pain, if present conditions continue much longer, will have to hang out an "S. R. O." sign, and there is hardly room in the amphitheatre to hold all those who want to see and hear "El Capitan." to the accompaniment of the booming of the sad sea waves.

Those same sea waves are not at all crowded, but they are in great demand during these days of warmth and humidity. And in addition to all this, only a short distance away there are real live politicians, for the Orientai is still a stamping ground for those who make and break slates.
